MATRIMONY CLUB CORRESPONDENCE.

Mesa, Ariz., Oct. 31, 1913.

Mr. Delos Bell, Secretary.

Kind Sir:—I was reading in the Defender where you intelligent young men of Chicago were forming a matrimonial club. I give the young men of the club my best wishes, and hope that each intelligent member will get a true and loving wife. Gee! how I wish I was a member of your club. But as I am in the far West, I will ask you, the secretary of the club, can I become a member of your club at this distance? If so, please introduce me through mail to some of your fair, intelligent working girls. I need someone to help me save my $20 per week. I have met a good many young ladies out here that will help me spend it, but that is not the idea. Answer at your most convenient time
