

Keeping Cool!

ANY big-league pitcher can tell you there's lots of strain in an afternoon on the mound. Keeping cool in the tight spots is what pays off.

BACK at the dugout a hurler is looking for another kind of "keeping cool". He finds a refreshing pick-up in a glass of iced tea.

ON DAYS away from the ball park -- days of relaxation -- iced tea is the favorite among athletes.

FM