

Introducing SIRS® Issues Researcher

For over 35 years, SIRS has sought out the best, most relevant information to encourage dialogue and critical thinking about the major issues of our society.

The debate continues with the all new SIRS Issues Researcher. Here, the issues are front and center—no matter what side you take.

PRO/CON ISSUES and Essential Questions

GAY ADOPTION
Should same-sex couples be allowed to adopt?

INTERNATIONAL ADOPTION | Pro/Con Viewpoints >
Should prospective parents pursue international adoptions regardless of known regulation abuses?

INTER-RACIAL ADOPTION
Should race be a consideration in adoption?

PRO/CON ISSUES and Essential Questions

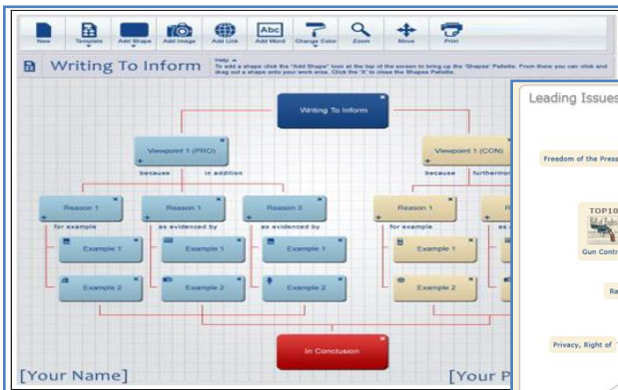

Should prospective parents pursue international adoptions regardless of known regulation abuses?

YES	NO
Parents can provide a brighter future for many of these children.	The large number of prospective parents seeking to adopt encourages corruption in some countries.

- Surge in Adoptions...Ethiopia Concern
- Why Adopting in Guatemala is Getting Harder
- U.S. Hearts Open Wider to Children with HIV
- To Adopt, Please Press Hold
- Doors Closing on Foreign Adoptions
- Misunderstandings Plague African Adoptions

Issues in Context
A clear, editorially-organized structure helps you pick a topic and understand its origins, related issues, global perspectives, and the essential questions under debate.

Intuitive User Interface
Connect to more than 300 most-studied issues with new search elements that help you explore a topic for ideas, relationships, and context in a highly-accessible visual design.

21st-Century Tools
Create, present, and even mash-up your ideas using social bookmarking, note organizers, media streams, and other online tools that help engage you in meaningful "21st-century learning."

Best-of Content
Editors compile content from more than 1,700 global full-text and multimedia sources—all actively selected to help you go from the "what's" to the "why's" of an issue.